EU-U.S. Privacy Shield: Consumer Privacy Policy

SCOPE

Consolidated Data Services (“CDS” or “company”) respect your concerns about privacy. CDS participates in the EU-U.S. Privacy Shield framework (“Privacy Shield”) issued by the U.S. Department of Commerce. CDS commits to comply with the Privacy Shield Principles with respect to Consumer Personal Data the company receives from the EU in reliance on the Privacy Shield. This Policy describes how CDS implements the Privacy Shield Principles for Consumer Personal Data.

DEFINITIONS

For purposes of this Policy:

“Consumer” means any natural person who is located in the EU, but excludes any individual acting in his or her capacity as an Employee.

“Controller” means a person or organization which, alone or jointly with others, determines the purposes and means of the processing of Personal Data.

“Employee” means any current, former or prospective employee, temporary worker, intern or other non-permanent employee of any subsidiary or affiliate of CDS, who is located in the EU.

“EU” means the European Union and Iceland, Liechtenstein and Norway.

“Personal Data” means any information, including Sensitive Data, that is (i) about an identified or identifiable individual, (ii) received by CDS in the U.S. from the EU, and (iii) recorded in any form.

“Privacy Shield Principles” means the Principles and Supplemental Principles of the Privacy Shield.

“Processor” means any natural or legal person, public authority, agency or other body that processes Personal Data on behalf of a Controller.

“Sensitive Data” means Personal Data specifying medical or health conditions, racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, trade union membership, sex life, the commission or alleged commission of any offense, any proceedings for any offense committed or alleged to have been committed by the individual or the disposal of such proceedings, or the sentence of any court in such proceedings.

“Supplier” means any supplier, vendor or other third party located in the EU that provides services or products to CDS.

PRIVACY SHIELD CERTIFICATION

CDS’s Privacy Shield certification, along with additional information about the Privacy Shield, can be found at <https://www.privacyshield.gov/>. For more information about Consumer Personal Data processing with respect to information obtained through CDS's website, please visit the Online Privacy Notice.

TYPES OF PERSONAL DATA CDS COLLECTS

CDS collects Personal Data directly from Consumers. This collection occurs, for example, when a Consumer visits CDS's website. The company may use this information for the purposes indicated in the Online Privacy Notice.

The types of Consumer Personal Data CDS collects includes:

- Contact information, such as name, postal address, email address and telephone number; and
- Personal Data in content Consumers provide on CDS's website and other data collected automatically through the website (such as IP addresses, browser characteristics, device characteristics, operating system, language preferences, referring URLs, information on actions taken on our website, and dates and times of website visits).

In addition, CDS obtains Personal Data, such as contact information and financial account information, of its Suppliers' representatives. CDS uses this information to manage its relationships with its Suppliers, process payments, expenses and reimbursements, and carry out CDS's obligations under its contracts with the Suppliers

CDS also may obtain and use Consumer Personal Data in other ways for which CDS provides specific notice at the time of collection.

PRIVACY SHIELD PRINCIPLES

CDS's privacy practices regarding the processing of Consumer Personal Data comply with the Privacy Shield Principles of Notice; Choice; Accountability for Onward Transfer; Security; Data Integrity and Purpose Limitation; Access; and Recourse, Enforcement and Liability.

Notice

CDS provides information in this Policy and the Online Privacy Notice about its Consumer Personal Data practices, including the types of Personal Data CDS collects, the types of third parties to which CDS discloses the Personal Data and the purposes for doing so, the rights and choices Consumers have for limiting the use and disclosure of their Personal Data, and how to contact CDS about its practices concerning Personal Data.

Relevant information also may be found in notices pertaining to specific data processing activities.

Choice

CDS generally offers Consumers the opportunity to choose whether their Personal Data may be (i) disclosed to third-party Controllers or (ii) used for a purpose that is materially different from the purposes for which the information was originally collected or subsequently authorized by the relevant Consumer. To the extent required by the Privacy Shield Principles, CDS obtains opt-in consent for certain uses and disclosures of Sensitive Data. Consumers may contact CDS as indicated below regarding the company's use or disclosure of their Personal Data. Unless CDS offers Consumers an appropriate choice, the company uses Personal Data only for purposes that are materially the same as those indicated in this Policy.

CDS shares Consumer Personal Data with its affiliates and subsidiaries. CDS may disclose Consumer Personal Data without offering an opportunity to opt out, and may be required to disclose the Personal Data, (i) to third-party Processors the company has retained to perform services on its behalf and pursuant to its instructions, (ii) if it is required to do so by law or legal process, or (iii) in response to lawful requests from public authorities, including to meet national security, public interest or law enforcement requirements. CDS also reserves the right to transfer Personal Data in the event of an audit or if the company sells or transfers all or a portion of its business or assets (including in the event of a merger, acquisition, joint venture, reorganization, dissolution or liquidation).

Accountability for Onward Transfer of Personal Data

This Policy and the Online Privacy Policy describe CDS's sharing of Consumer Personal Data.

Except as permitted or required by applicable law, CDS provides Consumers with an opportunity to opt out of sharing their Personal Data with third-party Controllers. CDS requires third-party Controllers to whom it discloses Consumer Personal Data to contractually agree to (i) only process the Personal Data for limited and specified purposes consistent with the consent provided by the relevant Consumer, (ii) provide the same level of protection for Personal Data as is required by the Privacy Shield Principles, and (iii) notify CDS and cease processing Personal Data (or take other reasonable and appropriate remedial steps) if the third-party Controller determines that it cannot meet its obligation to provide the same level of protection for Personal Data as is required by the Privacy Shield Principles.

With respect to transfers of Consumer Personal Data to third-party Processors, CDS (i) enters into a contract with each relevant Processor, (ii) transfers Personal Data to each such Processor only for limited and specified purposes, (iii) ascertains that the Processor is obligated to provide the Personal Data with at least the same level of privacy protection as is required by the Privacy Shield Principles, (iv) takes reasonable and appropriate steps to ensure that the Processor effectively processes the Personal Data in a manner consistent with CDS's obligations under the Privacy Shield Principles, (v) requires the Processor to notify CDS if the Processor determines that it can no longer meet its obligation to provide the same level of protection as is required by the Privacy Shield Principles, (vi) upon notice, including under (v) above, takes reasonable and appropriate steps to stop and remediate unauthorized processing of the Personal Data by the Processor, and (vii) provides a summary or representative copy of the relevant privacy provisions of the Processor contract to the Department of Commerce, upon request. CDS remains liable under the Privacy Shield Principles if the company's third-party Processor onward transfer recipients process relevant Personal Data in a manner inconsistent with the Privacy Shield Principles, unless CDS proves that it is not responsible for the event giving rise to the damage.

Security

CDS takes reasonable and appropriate measures to protect Consumer Personal Data from loss, misuse and unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration and destruction, taking into account the risks involved in the processing and the nature of the Personal Data.

Data Integrity and Purpose Limitation

CDS limits the Consumer Personal Data it processes to that which is relevant for the purposes of the particular processing. CDS does not process Consumer Personal Data in ways that are incompatible with the purposes for which the information was collected or subsequently authorized by the relevant Consumer. In addition, to the extent necessary for these purposes, CDS takes reasonable steps to ensure that the Personal Data the company processes is (i) reliable for its intended use, and (ii) accurate, complete and current. In this regard, CDS relies on its Consumers to update and correct the relevant Personal Data to the extent necessary for the purposes for which the information was collected or subsequently authorized. Consumers may contact CDS as indicated below to request that CDS update or correct relevant Personal Data.

Subject to applicable law, CDS retains Consumer Personal Data in a form that identifies or renders identifiable the relevant Consumer only for as long as it serves a purpose that is compatible with the purposes for which the Personal Data was collected or subsequently authorized by the Consumer.

Access

Consumers generally have the right to access their Personal Data. Accordingly, where appropriate, CDS provides Consumers with reasonable access to the Personal Data CDS maintains about them. CDS also provides a reasonable opportunity for those Consumers to correct, amend or delete the information where it is inaccurate or has been processed in violation of the Privacy Shield Principles, as appropriate. CDS may limit or deny access to Personal Data where the burden or expense of providing access would be disproportionate to the risks to the Consumer's privacy in the case in question, or where the rights of persons other than the Consumer would be violated. Consumers may request access to their Personal Data by contacting CDS as indicated below.

Recourse, Enforcement and Liability

CDS has mechanisms in place designed to help assure compliance with the Privacy Shield Principles. CDS conducts an annual self-assessment of its Consumer Personal Data practices to verify that the attestations and assertions CDS makes about its Privacy Shield privacy practices are true and that CDS's privacy practices have been implemented as represented and in accordance with the Privacy Shield Principles.

Consumers may file a complaint concerning CDS's processing of their Personal Data. CDS will take steps to remedy issues arising out of its alleged failure to comply with the Privacy Shield Principles. Consumers may contact CDS as specified below about complaints regarding CDS's Consumer Personal Data practices.

If a Consumer's complaint cannot be resolved through CDS's internal processes, CDS will cooperate with JAMS pursuant to the JAMS International Mediation Rules, available on the JAMS website at www.jamsadr.com/international-mediation-rules. JAMS mediation may be commenced as provided for in the relevant JAMS rules. The mediator may propose any appropriate remedy, such as deletion of the relevant Personal Data, publicity for findings of noncompliance, payment of compensation for losses incurred as a result of noncompliance, or cessation of processing of the Personal Data of the Consumer who brought the complaint. The mediator or the Consumer also may refer the matter to the U.S. Federal Trade Commission, which has Privacy Shield investigatory and enforcement powers over CDS. Under certain circumstances, Consumers also may be able to invoke binding arbitration to address complaints about CDS's compliance with the Privacy Shield Principles.
